Press Release: For Immediate Release

NEW DOCUMENTARY SET TO PREMIER IN RED CARPET EVENT ELEVATES TRANSGENDER NARRATIVES THROUGH HOME-VIDEO-STYLE INTERVIEWS, ILLUMINATES RESILIENCE

DALLAS, TX, August 1, 2017 On Saturday, August 26 at 4 P.M., Arttitude will premiere their documentary project, Transpose, at Studio Movie Grill-Spring Valley, Richardson in a red carpet event. Admission is free; however a donation is appreciated and will be used to fund further programs and events which aim to enact social change through the telling of diverse narratives.

Transpose uses interviews filmed with webcams, cell phones, and other personal recording devices to encapsulate the raw humanity of every individual story. "Arttitude, as an organization, strives to use Transpose as a point of discussion and education for our community so that people can have a better understanding and insight into the transgender community-- their stories, their hopes, their struggles and their triumphs as individuals" - Jil Lasaca, Transpose program manager.

"When I was asked to be part of this project, I had no idea how much it would change me to watch and listen to the stories of joy and struggle." - Kurtz Frausun, director.

This project is made possible by the generous support of sponsors: Top Golf Ft. Worth, BuzzBrews Kitchen, Outlines Men's Wear, Checkered Past Winery, Doug Boster Catering, Ionic Pacific, RFQSF, Maggianos North Park, Chocolate Secrets, Vanity Delight, Wine Shop at Home, and Sacred Tree Photography.
